LEE LAKE ITEMS

Since cooler weather arrived, sleds are fewer in number on Sunday, but the usual jolly crowd gathered. Canoeing was in order, and the young people spent most of the day on the water, rather than on land.

Miss Molly Gunn and brother, also Mrs. Doris Connelly, were new recruits from the district. Mr. Irwin from Carbon, and Miss Doris Walters, of Lundbreck, along with many strangers asking the way to the campsite to look around, were seen during the week.

Midnight frolics are all well and good, but when people destroy part of a constructed dam for firewood, it seems a pity, especially when the owners of Lee Lake ranch leave part of their property open by the lake for the public good (nicknamed Skotchman's Flat). As the parties are known, it would be as well for them not to repeat the offence.

We believe that some of the public are too careless in the payment of little accounts. If you were to ask the average merchant or business man these days what is the most embarrassing feature of his business, ninety per cent of them would tell you that it is the stagnant position of their small accounts. Rather than run the risk of making an enemy of a customer who owes but a small bill, the business man will let the collection end of his business slide along. The big account is gone after and usually collected. Small items in large numbers easily run into hundreds of dollars, and positively cripple a merchant's times like these. Wipe these out and give the business man a break.

The fire department made quick response to a call on Monday evening, when fire was discovered in a warehouse and truck shed belonging to Sartoris & Biell on State Street. The fire had gained considerable hold on a large quantity of hay stored in the building, and it required several hours fighting with two streams of water, as well as the removal of most of the hay, to extinguish the blaze. Fortunately there was no wind at the time, or the result would have been serious. Spontaneous combustion is believed to have been the cause.

A lady engaged an Irish cook, purchased apples and plums, and requested the cook to make tartlets. Entering the kitchen next day she saw six tarts, each bearing the letters T.A. in icing. The lady complimented her servant on her skill in pastry-cooking, and inquired the meaning of the letters. "Well ma'am," said Bridget, "I thought you might get mixed up, so them three with T.A. means 'Tis Apples,' and the other three with T.A. means 'Tain't Apples!'"

Mr. and Mrs. J. McDougall and Mr. and Mrs. H. Carmichael were Water-ton Lake visitors on Sunday.

Real Light On Russia.

So many conflicting reports as to conditions in Soviet Russia have been given to the public in recent years, and it has been so difficult to distinguish in such reports what is pure propaganda either for or against the political and economic systems now prevailing in that vast country, that people have developed the habit of shrugging their shoulders when Russia is mentioned and refusing to place reliance in much that is told them. It was, therefore, with unusual interest that delegates to the World's Grain Conference at Regina listened to the first hand knowledge which was brought to them by R. J. Stirmman, consulting engineer of Brooklyn, Iowa, who was employed by the Soviet Government for several years in connection with its gigantic plans for the mechanization of agriculture as part of its famous five-year plan.

Mr. Stirmman had no political axe to grind, he had no propaganda to spread. He merely told an unvarnished story to the assembled world grain experts of the situation as he personally knew it to exist in Russia. And inasmuch as agricultural development in Russia cannot but have a direct effect on agriculture in Western Canada, it is of interest and value to have Mr. Stirmman's first-hand information.

Quoting Litvinoff, Soviet Commissioner of Foreign Relations, as stating at Geneva last June that "unemployment, wage cuts, and strikes were unknown in the land of the Soviet," Mr. Stirmman commented that they were impossible in a country "where bread craves are granted only to the obedient worker." Control of the country's food supply precludes strikes, he said. There is no unemployment because the country's census takes no account of any but the workers—the unfortunates do not officially exist. There is no necessity for wage cuts for the money the government pays its workers has no value outside Russia. It is paper money and will not be honored for one nickel on a purchase abroad, or on a purchase of imported goods within Russia, Mr. Stirmman explained.

"Nevertheless there is wage-cutting in a sense, Mr. Stirmman giving the following example: The Soviet Government floats government loans each year, requiring each worker to turn back a part of his wages for bonds. In a fair job it amounts to a month's wages, which he could use for food. The worker feels this keenly but he does not complain.

Russian workers, he continued, by report always poverty stricken, as a whole today have the worst living conditions of any of the workers of their neighboring countries in Europe. The Russian could meet conditions in his plodding peasant life, but uprooted and the reserve supplies taken from him, he has no way to cope with winter's cold and the fearful winter hunger. The food supply available to Russian workers has fallen off in quantity steadily since 1928. Clothing, bedding and shoe supply are reduced to almost nothing. Housing has become more and more congested in the industrial and agricultural centres promoted by the Soviet.

Describing the system of farming, Mr. Stirmman said farmers lived in villages going out to farm their own individual strips of land. Throwing the land into collective farms was only to obliterate the dividing lines by throwing them in one unit. These collective farms were established before the State farms. The State farms were designed as models in each section for collectives and communes. Exorbitant taxes, no right to purchase, the possibility of fine as an enemy of the plan, and the promise of machinery through the government on their collectives quickly brought 90 per cent. of the farmers into collectives in the great drives of 1930 and 1931.

A Soviet State farm is never an independent farm in the western world sense. It remains only the link in a vast network of farms, with Moscow as the centre from which emanates all plans, orders and supplies. The man directing these farms is not often an agriculturist nor even an engineer. The entire crop is wheat.

State farms are under the direction of a resident farm superintendent. He has several assistants, all with offices and residences in the main settlements. There are directors of the Institute, the experimental station, and of grain production. Each of these has further assistants, the number ever growing without end. All were specialists and did no manual labor. The administrative class grows larger and the working class relatively smaller. More and more offices are being set up and more people are being put in them. The working class gains recruits from only the more remote districts and in the seasons of intensive work the women are brought in as "pinch hitters." Now, in 1933, it has become necessary to drive the office class back to the farm.

Describing how everything is centralized in Moscow, how even a practical director of a State farm had to wait for orders to begin an operation on his farm that he knew was long overdue, but which, although controlling perhaps thousands of workers, he had no right to start without definite orders from Moscow, Mr. Stirmman said:

"One question looms large in looking over the situation in this modern dictatorship. How did the government get control over a vast country and over the destinies of a conglomerate people? The answer is simple: She got control of the food supply. Why should any people's government need to hold its people by such a strong leash? Because the government is of the minority party, representing five to seven per cent. of the entire population. This one wonders when do they are "safe" and "good party men." That is the reason why Communists insist that "politics and farm engineering cannot be separated."

Everything, down to the smallest detail, is dictated from Moscow, and control maintained through a collection of fines, taxes and shares of crop. There is never any lessening of centralization by any such name in official circles. It is always ready to be replaced by an increasing of power in some particular field. This brings us to a very important consideration in a government dominated by five to seven per cent. of the population and it is this: Party men must be kept in all the major agricultural posts, regardless of ability among "comrades" because in these official lies the power to control food, production, farming methods, all expenditure, education of the worker and his family. This is the concern of the government in appointing men to these chief posts that they are "safe" and "good party men." That is the reason why Communists insist that "politics and farm engineering cannot be separated."

Grain Deterioration

Saskatchewan Research Workers Develop Method For Treating Damp Wheat

The practical value of the World's Grain Exhibition and Conference is revealed again in addresses contributed to discussion at the conference side of this mammoth gathering by Dr. R. K. Larmour, J. S. Clayton, and C. L. Wrenshall, of the laboratories of the University of Saskatchewan. These men have been experimenting with wet wheat, with a view to eliminating the development of heat and consequent deterioration of the grain before it reaches the driers at the head of the lakes.

Undue rain seasons have not been a common thing in the agricultural life of prairie Canada in recent years, and yet on occasions we do get protracted rainy spells that carry their threat to cut grain. The three Saskatchewan scientists mentioned have developed a vapor called toluene, that is held to be not inflammable in the slightest and that does no damage to the quality of grain, but that yet effectively prevents damage from heat, mustiness and fungi in the grain consequent upon wet weather.

This would seem to represent a distinct advance in agricultural science, and that Saskatchewan men have been able to reproduce this treatment and impart it to the World's Grain Conference will be a matter of satisfaction to all citizens of this province.

Maxims Of His Majesty

Rules For Life Conduct In Workroom At Buckingham Palace

An English journal in its current issue gives favorite quotations of celebrated people and shows quite clearly how many men and women whose names and deeds are known through the world fortify their lives by recalling great sayings and sentiments. This list of great people is headed by His Majesty King George and his list of quotations is worthy of being reproduced for its own sake as well as for the eminence of the one who uses it. These sentiments that hang in his workroom at Buckingham Palace read:

Teach me to be obedient to the rules of the game.
Teach me to distinguish between sentiment and sentimentality, admiring the one and despising the other.
Teach me neither to proffer nor to receive cheap praise.
If I am called upon to suffer, let me be like a well-bred beast that goes away to suffer in silence.
Teach me to win if I may not, teach me to be a good loser.
Teach me neither to cry for the moon, nor to cry over spilled milk.

There is a fine philosophy for the lives various maxims. Their reading enables one to understand better the wisdom and restraint and good sense and understanding usefulness of King George during his reign. Humble folk, lighting life's daily battles may find some inspiration in these maxims. They are here given to that end.

International Organization Formed To Conduct Drive On Crooks

Police of several nations organized recently in Chicago the "international world police" to chase the criminal from his haunts over the globe.

Prefer Native Workers

Many thousand foreign residents in Chile are affected by a new law stipulating that 95 per cent. of all factory and office workers must be of Chilean nationality. Many will have to leave the country to seek work elsewhere. If the foreigner has been in the country 10 years, or is married to a Chilean, he will be counted as a Chilean, and he will be exempt if he is performing duties for which a native is unsuitable.

Club Will Be Exclusive

Aviators who have crossed the north Atlantic alone are going to form a club. Plans for the organization were discussed by Amelia Earhart Pulfman and her house guest, Captain James A. McHugh. They discussed the idea to Wiley Post, world solo flyer, who expressed approval. Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Jimmie Mattern, the other eligibles, also will be invited to join.

Hourly Nursing Service

New Department In Nursing Established At Edmonton

To meet prevalent conditions, and following along lines of nursing organizations in other cities, the Edmonton Graduate Nurses' Association has organized an hourly nursing service in connection with the graduate nurses' registry.

Hourly nursing means that patients may secure skilled nursing care in the home for stated periods as they are necessary to comply with medical care. This form of nursing is similar to visiting nursing, except that hourly nursing is paid for on a time basis rather than on a visit basis.

The Graduate Nurses' Association is anxious to establish hourly nursing and is fortunate in establishing it under the graduate nurses' registry. The patient, nurse and community are thus in a position to benefit from an organized nursing service. This nursing service, in whatever capacity it is administered, will be with the operation of the medical profession.

Vimy Ridge Memorial

Undertaking Which Is Not Yet Completed, Is Massive In Conception

The memorial on Vimy Ridge, which four Canadian divisions and the Thirtieth British Brigade of West Kent and Scots stormed in April, 1917, is not yet completed fifteen years after the Armistice. But it is an undertaking massive in conception, on 240 acres 200 feet above the Douai Plain, and designed to be worthy of a victory of which Sir Douglas Haig said: "The capture of the renowned Vimy Ridge is an achievement of the highest order and of which Canada may well be proud." It was fitting that the sculptor should be a Canadian, Walter S. Allward, who won an award that was open to the British Empire. Since 1925 he has been engaged on the work in a London studio. "All the time," he says, "I have sought to avoid any semblance of drum-beating. Canada mourns her dead in the way I have endeavored to show in the Mother Spirit, which stands with drooped head on the wall, brooding over the plain on which her sons fell. Sorrow but not vindictive is there." Blocks of from twelve to twenty tons were required, and they were found in an old Roman quarry in Yugoslavia, from which the stone to build the Palace of Diocletian in Spalato in the third century was taken.

The common cause of France and Canada is to be represented by twin pylons 138 feet high. Below them will be seen the Spirit of Sacrifice in twenty heroic figures grouped at the ends of a wall 237 feet long, the base of the memorial. Surmounting the pylons will appear in relief Peace, Justice, Truth and Knowledge. The design calls for the covering of mouths of guns along the base by olive branches and laurel. The memorial should be ready for dedication on Dominion Day next year. The approaches will be by avenues of pines grown in Canada and France.

In F. A. McKenzie's "Canada's Day of Glory" may be read the breathless story of the capture of Vimy Ridge. A Canadian correspondent, he proceeds justice to the part the men of Kent and Scotland played in that immortal feat of arms. The dedication would not be adequate without the presence of the commander of the troops engaged, Sir Julian Byng, Governor-General of Canada from 1921 to 1928.—New York Times.

Canadian Legion At Tokio

Structure Nearly Completed And Will Be Soon Ready For Occupancy

It is understood that work on the Canadian legion in Tokio is proceeding rapidly and that the structure will shortly be ready for the occupancy of Hon. Herbert Marler, Canadian minister to Japan. While no official statement has been given by the government, it is learned that Mr. Marler, on the occasion of his last visit to Ottawa, urged upon the government the advisability of going ahead with the legion construction so that advantage might be taken of the low costs of labor and materials. The only opposition to the scheme was the scarcity of money for embarking on such a project which would not be described as absolutely essential. Long term financing was arranged, however, and the work has been in progress some time. It is expected a statement will be issued by the government shortly.

Coffee exports from Haiti this year have exceeded all expectations.

A Genius For Organizing

Lord Of Thousand Ships Was Millionaire At Thirty-Nine

One of the reasons why the "sun never sets on the British flag" was the organizing genius of Sir John Ellerman, son of a German bookkeeper. Sir John died recently in France, but in a hundred ports from Southampton to Sydney, his flag is flying on the ships which keep Britain first on the seas.

It was quite appropriate that Ellerman, the ship owner, should be the wealthiest man in Britain, whose life and prosperity depended upon sea-borne commerce. A few years back when many values had not flown so far as they have today, Sir John's wealth was estimated at from $100,000,000 to $300,000,000. That put him far ahead of any other Britisher and in the Henry Ford and Rockefeller class. Even today the thirty British are calculating that the nation will collect $47,000,000 in death duties.

The Ellerman career, like that of Sir Thomas Lipton, proved that the art of being a self-made man bears no American patent. Ellerman rose from the humble place of black-coated English clerk in a shipping office. By 29 he was a millionaire. By 50 he owned one-eighth of all the British shipping.

He was frugal in a nation where somewhat free spending is the tradition of the wealthy. He never owned a yacht or a racing stable. It was said in the city that he never spent more than 5 per cent. of a year's income. The rest went into ships and more ships, land—he owned a large chunk of London—and newspapers. At one time his newspaper holdings rivalled those of Northcliffe. But Ellerman never shared Arthur Harmsworth's passion for political influence. He was content to collect the dividends and let the other men advise the cabinet.

Move Settlers North

Settlers In Drouth Stricken Areas Of Southern Alberta To Go North

The Alberta government, and the railways have agreed to share the costs of moving about 150 settlers from drouth-stricken areas in southern Alberta, and only decision of the Dominion government as to its share in the project is awaited, according to Hon. George Hoadley, Alberta minister of agriculture.

The settlers will be moved to more favorable areas in northern Alberta.

TO MAKE CAREFUL INVESTIGATION OF BANKING SYSTEM

Quebec, Que.—A careful and business-like study of Canada's banking and credit system is the aim of Lord Macmillan, who arrived from London on the liner "Empress of Britain," to head the royal commission recently appointed for that purpose.

"We want to do something really useful for Canada," said the author of the Macmillan report, made three years ago on the similar problem in England. "We are taking this very seriously and we need the goodwill of the Canadian people to make it a success."

Lord Macmillan is making his fourth trip to Canada in seven years and is no stranger to Canada. "I am practically a Canadian," he said "I sit on the privy council on many Canadian appeals and on my first visit to Canada I was counsel for Canada in the Labrador boundary case."

Sir Charles Addis, the other English member of the commission, was also on board the "Empress" and expressed himself as keenly interested in the case ahead of him. Both Lady Macmillan and Lady Addis accompanied their husbands.

A former lord advocate of Scotland, Lord Macmillan proved to be a most affable and friendly personage and humorously appeals and on an "orra man." "In Scotland," he said, "we call an odd job person an 'orra man,' and that's what I am. I am not an expert banker but this is really a side line."

There will be only five members on the commission, the Canadian members being Sir Thomas White, former minister of finance; Hon. J. E. Brownlee, Premier of Alberta, and Beaudry Leman, president of La Banque Canadienne Nationale.

He expects to complete the inquiry within two months but the report may not be made to the government until later in the year.

The report of the commission will form the basis for the decennial revision of the Canadian Bank Act, which was due last session of parliament but was postponed one year in order that this inquiry might be instituted.

All important business centres will be visited by the commission and those who have anything to contribute to the success of the inquiry will be given a hearing. The concluding session will be held in Ottawa.

Wheat Pool Payment

Further Payment May Be Made In Alberta

Edmonton, Alberta.—Possibility exists a further payment may be made to wheat pool members on the 1930 crop if present increased wheat prices continue, according to Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta.

Mr. Brownlee said the pool, which handled the crop under the guidance of John I. McFarland, of Winnipeg, may show a profit due to wheat values jump recently. "There would seem to be good reason for using such profits by way of partial equalization, at least, of payments on the 1930 crop," the Alberta premier added.

Bank Act Inquiry

Is Expected To Be Completed Early In October

Edmonton, Alberta.—Inquiry into operations of the Bank Act by the royal commission, announced by the Dominion government, is expected to be completed early in October, according to Premier J. E. Brownlee of Alberta, selected as a member of the commission.

Mr. Brownlee revealed Prime Minister R. B. Bennett had invited him to join the commission before the Canadian government had left for London to attend the world economic conference.

War On Kidnapping

President Roosevelt Maps Out Plan To Control Menace

Hyde Park, N.Y.—President Roosevelt mapped a way against kidnapping and racketeering with his intimate adviser, Raymond Moley, an authority on crime, and scanned every available federal statute to aid an immediate campaign.

To head down kidnapping he is counting on a super police force, already in organization and at work to co-operate with state authorities.

Loan Easily Subscribed

Pine Reception Accorded Canadian Loan On London Market

London, Eng.—The most optimistic expectations were borne out when the bids for the new Canadian loan of $13,000,000 were closed directly after they had been opened.

It was understood, although not officially announced, that the first mail of the day had brought a substantial over-subscription.

The enthusiastic reception accorded the first Canadian loan on the London money market in 20 years was fully up to the welcoming comments of financial authorities after announcement of the loan last week, summed up by financial correspondents of the daily newspapers who called today "Canada's day."

Success of the loan will promote the financial co-operation between London and Ottawa "which is necessary if the policy of last week's empire declaration is to be made effective," said the Times.

That declaration called for closer financial relationships with stability of exchanges and directly preceded the re-entry of the Dominions into the London loan market.

"Today's loan was in four per cent bonds, sold at par and with no discount for cash, in 20 and 25-years issues. The proceeds will not go outside the empire, but it is understood they will be used to pay converted victory bonds of 5½ per cent redeemable this fall."

Blames Newspapers

Code Of Ethics Needed In Treatment Of Crime News

Chicago.—A special code of ethics for treatment of crime news by newspapers as an aid to law enforcement officials was asked by Malcolm W. Binney, editorial director of the Detroit Free Press.

Addressing the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Binney placed partial responsibility for the rise of the gangster upon what he termed the "sensational, irresponsible and scandal mongering element of the press."

The element, he declared, had served as publicity agent for the criminal.

Make Heavy Payment

Saskatchewan Pool Elevator Issue Cheque For Large Amount

Regina, Sask.—The Saskatchewan Pool Elevators recently paid $1,454,414 to the liquidators of the Saskatchewan Co-Operative Elevator Company in final payment on the purchase price of 1928.

With the exception of a payment on a mortgage to the Saskatchewan provincial government of $977,590 plus interest, which is to be paid at the end of this month, the entire liability has disappeared from the books of the pool.

The purchase price of all the assets in 1928 was $11,061,269.

Scouts' Fourth Jamboree

Lord Baden-Powell Present At Gathering In Hungary

Godollo, Hungary.—The fourth world jamboree of Boy Scouts started here with the parade of 30,000 boys past Admiral Nicholas Northy, regent of Hungary.

A telegram arrived from the Prince of Wales, thanking the Scouts for a greeting sent to him and wishing them success. Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Scout movement, was present.

Refuse To Aid Trotsky

Paris, France.—Leon Trotsky was reported to have failed in a desperate effort to get the Soviet foreign commissar, Maxim Litvinoff, to help him return to Moscow. The exiled Russian revolutionary is sojourning with Mme. Trotsky near Royat, France. Litvinoff, reports said, refused to help him.

Mergers Better Than Combines

Toronto, Ont.—"The day may never come when we have a combine, but a merger is a different thing," Mayor W. J. Stewart of Toronto told the Funeral Service Association of Ontario in convention here. "If we have so many small establishments the public is called upon to share an overhead which is unfair," he said.

Frankish Lightning

Minden, Ont.—Punjab lightning never strikes the same spot twice, but it comes pretty close to it. Five head of cattle on the farm of Dunn Gibbs were killed by lightning recently. Last autumn a large barn on the same farm was struck and burned to the ground.

Frost Damages Wheat

Will Be Used For Cattle Feed In Southern Alberta Areas

Calgary, Alberta.—July frost attacks on the High River-Blackie area of Southern Alberta has injured 30,000 tons of wheat, which will now be used as cattle feed, it was revealed at a meeting of farmers and ranchers here.

The meeting, attended by Hon. George Hoadley, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, was held to ascertain feed conditions in the district.

Drouth also has seriously affected the district and plans were being made to solve the feed problem this fall with the aid of the cabinet minister, who declared there was grave danger cattle would be sacrificed by holders during the coming months unless something was done about the situation.

Encounters Obstacles

Dog Musher From The Pas May Not Reach Chicago Fair

Winnipeg, Manitoba.—Pat Campbell, famed northland dog musher, has almost given up hope of reaching the World's Fair at Chicago with his team of racing huskies.

Campbell, and two companions, mushed the 500-mile trail from The Pas to Winnipeg, arriving here 15 days ago. Since then he has been trying to arrange for entrance to the United States, and has applied to Chicago fair officials for aid.

Immigration authorities demand a bond of $200 each for Campbell and his aides and another bond of $2 apiece for the seven dogs in his team.

U. S. PRESIDENT APPROVES LARGE NAVAL PROGRAM

Hyde Park.—President Roosevelt has approved plans of the United States navy for construction of 21 new war ships in the $238,000,000 building program.

The president carefully analysed the bids recently received by the navy and the allotments decided on by the commanders. His approval signalled an immediate start on work providing jobs for thousands in government and private shipyards.

Admiral William Standley, chief of naval operations, and Rear Admiral Emory Land, chief of construction, brought the naval construction program to the summer White House by seaplane.

Mr. Roosevelt talked the plans over with his naval chiefs and after giving his approval left with them the formal announcements of assignments to yards for construction of the ships.

The start of America's huge naval construction comes just after word from Japan of the start of a building program there.

Mr. Roosevelt's ship building program comes under the public works program and is intended to give the American fleet the strength it is allowed under existing naval limitations agreements.

Both Republicans and Democrats in congress have urged that the American fleet be built up to the terms allowed by the London agreement.

About $48,000,000 is to be expended this year and a total of $238,000,000 over three years.

BRITAIN'S AIR MINISTER BECOMES A PILOT

Lord Londonderry, British Secretary of State for Air, evidently believes in practicing what he preaches. Two weeks ago he gained his "A" certificate for flying and a week previous his second daughter, Lady Margaret Stewart, also qualified for her "A" certificate. Lord Londonderry's youngest daughter, Lady Mary Stewart, who is not yet 13, is rapidly becoming an accomplished flyer. Our pictures show Lord Londonderry in the cockpit of his 'plane and inset is a photograph of Lady Margaret.

Churchill Port Opening

Formal Opening May Be Postponed Until Next Season

Ottawa, Ont.—Hon. R. J. Manion, Minister of Railways and Canals, stated that formal opening of the port of Churchill will, in all probability, not take place until next year.

In response to a question by B. M. Stitt, M.P. for Nelson, Dr. Manion stated in the House last session that the official ceremony would probably take place this season. However, it is the desire not only of the Minister, but of the government—and the Prime Minister himself—that the latter should be present at the opening.

Alberta Relief Commission Chairman Would Send Men To Relief Camps

Calgary, Alberta.—Efforts by A. A. Mackenzie, Alberta relief commission chairman, to have paroles granted to rod-riders serving terms in Fort Saskatchewan jail, have failed. Alberta attorney-general's department has turned down Mr. Mackenzie's request.

The Alberta relief commission chairman had suggested vagrants convicted of stealing rides on trains should be sent to single jobless relief camps if they wished to go, while those refusing the offer should serve out their terms.

George Hoadley, Alberta Minister of Agriculture, are expected to attend the royal welcome being prepared to Freland Wilford, winner of the world wheat crown at Regina World's Wheat Exhibition and Conference, at Stavelay, where his farm is located.

Wilford is expected to return to Stavelay August 7.

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO OLD TIMERS OF THE WEST

Prince Albert.—The real mark of a nation," to quote Sir Hon. Alexander King, passed before cheering thousands at the fair here. Men and women, some nearing the century mark, with grey hair, skins tanned by prairie sun and wind and shoulders bowed by toil, walked by the grandstand in the "old timers" parade, feature of Prince Albert fair.

Ninety years had passed over the heads of a few, years in which they had seen man take possession of the prairie; had seen settlements grow swiftly up out of the plains and expand into stirring western cities. Some were in their prime when the Riel rebellion shook the frontier district. They had served at Batchoe, and Duck Lake, they knew those stormy days and they knew Riel.

The parade, in which veterans of the prairies who had lived in this district for more than 40 years were eligible to take part, drew from Mr. King words of admiration. In his speech opening Citizens' Day, the annual parade referred to "the splendid band of old timers—pioneers in settlement and government, who have helped to build up Canada."

This is the golden anniversary of the Prince Albert fair. Today it drew to the platform men prominent in the life of the province and the Dominion. With Mr. King were: Sir Frederick Haultain, chief Justice of Saskatchewan; Hon. J. F. Bryant, Minister of Public Works in the government of the province; T. C. Davis, a former attorney-general, and Charles Young, president of the Prince Albert Agricultural Society.

The Liberal leader expressed regret that the death of his mother had prevented Hon. J. T. M. Anderson, Premier of Saskatchewan, from attending the opening.

Introduced as "one of the outstanding real old timers of the west," Sir Frederick Haultain paid a tribute to the pioneer women of Saskatchewan. "We take off our hats to the old timers, but we take them off and keep them off to the women," he said.

Mr. Bryant, representing Premier Anderson, followed with the greetings of the government and people of Saskatchewan. He also expressed his pleasure at being on the same platform with the leader of the Liberal party. Some interesting facts about pioneer people of Prince Albert were told to the gathering by Mr. Bryant. Mr. Young introduced the speakers.

Then followed the parade. As the "old timers" marched by those on the platform in tribute to them followed by the great crowd in the stands. The pioneers smiled as a cheer arose. A tribute to their achievement for Canada.

INTER-EMPIRE MIGRATION PLANS ARE ADVANCED

Quebec, Que.—Convinced the time has arrived for Canada to embark on a "definite, moderate policy of immigration, particularly from Great Britain," E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, returned from a visit to the United Kingdom. Mr. Beatty arrived with Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, and the Canadian delegation to the World Economic Conference, on board the "Empress of Britain."

"The paucity of our population is still a drawback in view of the external and internal obligations of Canada," said Mr. Beatty. "I do not think this country has anything to fear from deliberation on immigration, not extreme policy of admission of those of our own race in particular."

Plans for inter-empire migration were being very carefully worked out in the United Kingdom, he added, and there was hope of some results in a year or two.

Great progress industrially and financially is being made in the United Kingdom, said the railway chief. He believed the country's position was stronger than it had been for a long time.

British shipowners, he said, were tackling their problems in a serious way and he looked for important new policies respecting trade routes and possibly the elimination of idle, obsolete shipping. There might also be consideration of assistance from the government to put British shipping more on a par with that of other countries which had received generous assistance.

Trans-Canada Flight

Proposal Made For Mollisons To Fly Across Canada

Vancouver, B.C.—Prospect of Captain James and Amy Mollison making a flight across Canada, possibly non-stop, is envisioned in communications exchanged between the flying couple and Mayor Louis D. Taylor.

Replying to an invitation to visit Vancouver, the Mollisons wired "Many thanks for your kind wishes. We shall certainly bear in mind the possibility of making such a flight as you suggest. Unfortunately our new machine will not be available for some time."

The mayor, at the suggestion of Ald. W. J. King, chairman of the airport committee, and Manager William Templeton, wired to the Mollisons in New York that a trans-Canada flight would be of considerable interest to British aviation and added that a machine is available in Toronto.

He referred to the Mollisons, who have been in the air for many years, and who was a recent visitor to the airport here.

THE EDITOR'S SNAP

Every once in a while some cheerful individual remarks to us: "Well, now that the paper is out, I suppose you can take it easy for three or four days."

Yes, how delightful it is that a country editor has nothing to do between press days. Business runs along automatically. When paper bills come due, money drops off the trees with which to pay them. Subscribers vie with each other to see who can pay the farthest in advance. Advertisers just beg for additional space, and the way news hunts up the editor is also pleasant to contemplate.

There is something strange about the way news items act. When the paper is out, the editor simply goes to his desk and leans back in his easy chair, looking wise and waiting for next week's press day. The day before press day, people line up before the office door, and then file in past the desk and tell him all the news of the week. He writes it up in fifteen or twenty minutes, takes it back and hangs it on a hook. The compositors take the copy and shake it over the type cases, say a few mystic words, the type flies into place, and after a few passes by the foreman the forms are ready for the press again. And the editor goes down and deposits some more money in the bank.

It is the greatest snap in the catalogue.

RADIO VS. NEWSPAPER

There is a growing disposition to question the value of radio advertising, and the experience of many in this medium of publicity is driving them back to the more dependable realm of newspaper advertising.

For one thing, the pull reached by radio is very much smaller. On the prairies, government returns indicate that 17 per cent of the rural homes possess radios. That is a much smaller proportion than is reached by the newspaper.

Again, the numbers of people whose radios are operating at the chosen advertising hour is a question. The unknown listeners may be very few in proportion to the total radio owners, and the message, a shot in the dark, without security of marksmanship.

The average radio listener does not tune in for advertising, but for amusement. When he does listen, he wants entertainment, and his natural reaction to a break-up in the programme for advertising purposes, is annoyance and antagonism. He is not in a receptive state of mind. Many find themselves automatically closing their ears when the charms of this or that product are introduced. Or they turn the dial.

The man who reads the newspaper however, is in a receptive state. He is taking the time to peruse the contents, and it is a voluntary act, not something thrust on his attention. In this spirit, his mind registers the messages presented on the printed page, and the desired impression is left.

With the majority of human beings, the eye is a much keener recorder than the ear. Any message conveyed through the eye has a much better chance of acceptance than if proclaimed by an unseen voice. The printed word has a dependability that recommends it.

Almost every family subscribes to one or more newspapers. Only 17 per cent of Alberta homes have radios. Of this only a fraction "listen

LET'S GIVE IT BACK

Every once-in-a-while some fellow suggests giving the country back to the Indians. Yes, we've taken the country from them, destroyed most of the natural resources and practically all of its original beauty. We've killed off the game birds and animals and polluted the streams with our filth; defiled the Indian himself with disease to which he was once a stranger, corrupted his appetite and ruined his primitive sense of right and wrong. Now, let's give the country back to his ragged remnant and let him redeem it and purify his posterity from the effects of civilization.—The New Leaf.

Mrs. H. Frey, of Pincher Creek, last week received the sad intelligence that the death had occurred in Spokane of both a sister and brother. Mrs. W. N. well, who was thought to have sufficiently recovered, was removed to her home. During the night she suddenly passed away, and it was also learned that the brother, Mr. Clarence Marsh, still in the hospital, too had succumbed during the early hours of Friday, July 28th.

Restrictions placed on dance hall hours under an order early in June, by which public entertainments were required to close at 1 o'clock on week nights, have been lifted by a new order in council, which leaves the hours open to any time desired. It is still required, however, that dance halls shall be closed from midnight on Saturday to 8 a.m. on Monday.

DO CARRIER PIGEONS THINK?

Since pigeons were used as messengers as early as the fifth Egyptian dynasty and have served man so faithfully through the centuries, it would seem that they should be given some credit for a feeling of responsibility.

I believe that when a bird is used repeatedly to carry a message, that bird becomes more or less conscious of its mission, realizes that there is a purpose in the flying. The use of these birds is no longer confined to times of war; present-day activities employ them in many other ways. Forest rangers prize their help in the control of fires. Air pilots frequently carry several pigeons as a means of communication should they be obliged to land in an isolated place.

One of the most recent uses of pigeons is in the making of aerial photographs with a small, light camera, which is strapped around the bird's body. Sometimes air messages are attached to the same bird's legs. At intervals the camera automatically makes exposures, as the bird flies. I think that the pigeon flying with such an outfit, anyway after a few repetitions, feels himself to be an actor in something important. It is significant that the bird lets nothing happen to the equipment, and seldom gets "sidetracked."

Unless pigeons think, how would we explain this: Sometime ago a pigeon-fancier in Dover missed one of the birds from his loft, and tried in vain for several days to locate it. Finally, the man noticed strange behavior in one of his other pigeons. It would fill its crop as full as possible, then fly away at great speed.

The owner resolved to find out where the bird went, and so the mystery was solved. He traced the pigeon to a certain chimney-stack on the outskirts of Dover, and saw it drop the grains of corn down into the chimney. Ladders were brought and the chimney examined. Down in there, resting on a little brick ledge, was the lost pigeon, and it was still alive, thanks to its mate's care.—L. E. Dubanks.

The marriage of Hilda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, to Emil Blas, junior, was solemnized at the United church here on Saturday evening last, Rev. John Wood, of Bellevue, officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father, while Mrs. Doris Ennis, sister of the bride, attended. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Victor Blas. Mr. Harold Marks officiated at the organ.

We have been asked to not criticize the actions of the Blainmore town council or school board. But, what about the spending of $7000 or more on a delegate to Ottawa, when money so spent could have purchased quite a quantity of clothing purported to be urgently needed?

Flowermen in Canada, anyone who will express opposition to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police as an institution is considered an undesirable citizen.

And the very latest important item of news is that the Blainmore town council has endorsed the Murphyized resolution to do away with the mounted police, absolutely the most necessary institution in Canada today. A little more rope, please?

The Federal Government is prepared to consider the feasibility of tests by Canadian government agents of the Hudson Bay route before the present accepted season and after the season, it is indicated by Edward Evans manager of the Southern Saskatchewan stock yards at Moose Jaw. The suggestion is the result of the recent Saskatchewan stock growers conference and its purpose is to determine the justice or otherwise of existing high insurance and cargo rates. Mr. Evans has received notification that an official of the Federal Department of Trade and Commerce will shortly come to Saskatchewan to discuss the proposal.

New Law Has Precedent

Death Penalty For Kidnappers In Year 1665

If New York state legislators decide to enact a law providing the death penalty for kidnappers, as has been urged, they will have precedent in the colony's first English laws, and precedent is due to the legal mind.

On March 1, 1666—269 years ago—were promulgated the Duke of York laws which named 12 offenses for which the death penalty was inflicted. One of them was kidnapping. It read: "If any person forcibly steal or carry away any man or woman, he shall be put to death."

Avalanche Victims Found

With the melting of the snow on the Swiss Alps six of 13 avalanche victims have been found 7,500 feet above Locarno. The 13 were smothered by sugar and coffee across the frontier when the avalanche swept them from a pass and buried them under snow, ice and rock 3,000 feet below. Search for the remaining seven is being continued.

Ten-Minute Superstitions

A ten-minute check-up on the person trying to negotiate a ladder set up on the sidewalk in Sacramento, California, was as follows: Of the forty-six women passing, thirty-four walked around and thirty-eight of the sixty-nine men did the same. Twenty-three men and twelve women walked under. Possibly some didn't want to be hit with a brick—or a gob of paint.

Work Of Banking Commission

Monetary System One Of Many Things To Be Studied

The terms of reference under which a banking commission of Lord McMillan, Premier of Alberta, and Beaudry Leman, of the Banque Canadienne Nationale, Montreal, will inquire into the act's operations are:

It is desirable that the approaching periodic revision of the Bank Act shall be based on a complete and detailed examination of the provisions of the act and of the functions an operation of the banking system;

It is also desirable that such examination should include a study of the facilities now afforded by the Finance Act and a careful consideration of the advisability of establishing a central banking institution, and, if so established, of the relation of such central bank to existing banks and its proper authority and function to the operation of the banking system;

That such examination should also include a study of the entire monetary system of Canada, including credit, currency and coinage, particularly in their relation to commodity price movements and fluctuations in international exchange;

It is also advisable to consider whether and in what respects the banking institutions and the monetary system of Canada may be modified, extended or developed for the purpose of facilitating inter-provincial and international co-operation in public policies designed to promote the revival of domestic and foreign trade and enterprise and the general increase of employment and to insure a greater measure of stability in respect thereto.

From a graduate of the Margaret Eaton School of Physical Education, Toronto, Miss V. Vaux is given instruction in corrective gymnastics and physical education which includes such as the indoor and outdoor sports of well-rounded living.

Ideally situated on the wooded shores of the Assiniboine River, the school, capable of accommodating 100 pupils and with an attendance in its first few years between 120 and 150 pupils, includes both day and boarding students, Riverbend with its new building providing model class rooms, gymnasium, music room, and dining hall, supplies a "school away from home" of the highest standard.

Many names prominent in the social and church life of the west appear on its enlarged advisory council. Besides thirty-one from Winnipeg including Mrs. E. C.
